

Michelle Shewchuk is an enthusiastic and motivated insurance professional who recently launched her career in the industry. She started her career in November 2022 with no previous experience and dove right into receiving her Level 1 and Level 2 license by May 2023. Michelle is driven by a passion for learning and an eagerness to deepen her understanding of the insurance landscape. In a relatively short time, she has developed her knowledge in the commercial and farm areas, and is focused on gaining a broader skill set that will allow her to thrive in the insurance field overall.

As a new professional, Michelle is deeply committed to continuous growth and development. She actively seeks out opportunities to learn from others, stay up to date with industry trends, and expand her knowledge through hands-on experience and professional education. In her current role at CJ Campbell Insurance, she has already gained valuable experience in Account Management and is excited to continue building their expertise and contributing meaningfully to the team.

Eager to grow professionally, Michelle is excited to join the Young Professionals Board, where she can collaborate with other emerging leaders, share fresh perspectives, and contribute to initiatives that foster mentorship, innovation, and community. She is passionate about creating opportunities for young professionals to connect, learn, and succeed as they navigate their careers in the insurance industry.

With a focus on both personal and professional development, Michelle is excited to contribute to the board's initiatives, shape the future of the insurance industry, and play an active role in supporting the current and next generation of leaders.
